DEATH CLAIMS HENRY ZELLNER

Charter Member of St. Paul Church Had Reached Age of 81

Henry Zellner, a well known and highly respected citizen, passed away peacefully on Christmas morning at his home, 1030 Chestnut street. Mr. Zellner suffered greatly the past three months but bore his cross patiently seeking comfort in the communion with the Master.

He was born in Halsdorf, Germany, September 25, 1847, and at the time of his death had reached the age of 81 years and three months. At the age of 20 years he came to America, coming direct to Hamilton where he has since made his home.

Mr. Zellner was united in marriage October 13, 1870, with Katherine Asmann who survives him and was a devoted and kind husband and father. He also leaves a daughter Katherine and a son John Zellner, also a brother Valentine Zellner of Marysville, Ohio, and a sister, Mrs. George Yaekle of this city and many other relatives and friends.

He was a charter member of St. Paul's Evangelical church and his life was exemplary of a Christian man. The Lord called him home to the everlasting portion of those of whom it can be said: I have fought the good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith, henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness.

The funeral service will take place Friday afternoon at the home at two o'clock and services at two-thirty at St. Paul's church, Rev. W. Vollbrecht officiating. Friends may view the remains Thursday afternoon and evening.
